In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week. Last week's giving was 82% of the target. Thank you!
Sat 2	6.00pm	Noreen Ramsey (R.I.P.)	PROFESSION OF FAITH I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer in time of COVID Almighty and eternal God, our refuge in every danger, to whom we turn in our distress; in faith we pray look with compassion on the afflicted, grant eternal rest to the dead, comfort to mourners, healing to the sick, peace to the dying, strength to healthcare workers, wisdom to our leaders and the courage to reach out to all in love, so that together we may give glory to your holy name. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for Peace and Justice in Ukraine

God of peace and justice, who change the hardened heart and break the power of violence, we entrust the people of Ukraine to you. Protect them in this time of peril.

Let them know not death but life, not slavery but freedom. You are Father of all.

We are brothers and sisters. Give us the strength to live that truth in love, choosing peace not war. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Mary Our Mother, Queen of Peace, Pray for us.

Second Rite of Reconciliation Greenmount Parish St. Anthony Tuesday 5th April at 7.00 p.m.

Loving like Jesus the astonishing fact that human beings are called to love others with the very love of God himself. Jesus teaches us that families and communities in which we live are not to stop at just being gatherings of like-minded people who love one another. They are to prove themselves to sons and daughters of the Most High by loving even their enemies. This Jesus insists at embarrassing lengths is the distinctive nature of Christianity. Without loving deeds and behaviour towards those who naturally repel us we have no right to call ourselves Christians. Does this discourage oneself? St. Therese of the Infant Jesus, St. Therese of Lisieux helps us here. She assures us that she was often discouraged in the struggle. True she had some successes but failed much more than she liked. She soon learnt however not to be surprised at her failures. Indeed, she learnt to love and treasure her failures as they became a sort of roof and claim on Jesus to do for her, she could not do for herself because of her littleness. She saw clearly that this was precisely the reason Jesus did not give his disciples his new commandment "to love one another as he loves us" until his last Supper with them. Giving his whole self to them, the sublime gift of the Eucharist, He enabled them to possess his own love as their very own. Consequently, at each failure Therese learnt to throw herself head long into the arms and the heart of Jesus knowing that this way she would not fail to carry out Jesus' new commandment in some great and mysterious way that she did not fully understand but she knew it had some hidden apostolic fruitfulness. Such is the genius of Therese, her boldness and audacity attracts the weak to the One who said, "Come to me all who labour and are heavy burdened and I will give you rest". "Ah" exclaimed Therese "How peace comes flooding to the soul. One really learns to be poor. May we attain the virtue of humility to throw ourselves headlong, to the ONE who offers and gives peace.
