Prayer for Vocations Jesus you are the Good Shepherd who is always mindful of your Church. Watch over those who are baptised in your name and grant peace and harmony to all families. We ask you to choose from the families of our Parish many priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers who will gladly spend their lives making you known and loved. Amen.
Prayer for Peace and Justice in Ukraine God of peace and justice, who change the hardened heart and break the power of violence, we entrust the people of Ukraine to you. Protect them in this time of peril. Let them know not death but life, not slavery but freedom. You are Father of all. We are brothers and sisters. Give us the strength to live that truth in love, choosing peace not war. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Mary Our Mother, Queen of Peace, Pray for us.

Planned Giving The Planned Giving program is an important part of the Parish as it allows us to maintain all aspects of the Church, Presbytery and Parish Centre. In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week. Last week’s giving will be posted next week. Thank you!
PROFESSION OF FAITH I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Formation and Renewal – Parish Support Workshops. Archbishop Costelloe in Lent launched a program entitled Liturgical Formation and Renewal. It centres on reflection around what it means to be a Christ-centred Church that is prayerful and Eucharistic. The second phase of the Liturgical Formation and Renewal is offered to Leaders in Ministries within the Parishes. An Invitation is extended to Member of Adult Faith Group, Liturgy Committee, Co-ordinator of Acolytes and Ministers to the Sick, Musicians at the Eucharist, I.T. Operators at the Eucharist, Lectors/Proclaimers, Catechists. The attendance of a representative from each of these sectors would be of great assistance to the life of the Parish. The date Tuesday 9th May 5:30pm to 7:00pm Where Our Parish Centre Hall. Registration for practical planning is required. Refer to Centre of Liturgy Liturgical Formation Renewal Parish Workshops. Or liturgy@liturgy-perth.au

In Darkness and Hands up in the Light How many times have you heard yourself say "I'll never rise again!" Has that been your experience? Has it ever happened that something had laid you so low that you did say "I'll never rise again"? It reminds me when a very close friend of mine died. I remember saying "Life will never be the same again." And it hasn't been. The loss was so terrible. I have heard as I suppose you have heard many wrenching stories from family, friends and people from all walks of life of this expression and feeling and it is the reoccurring thing, that "life will never be the same again" – "I'll never rise again." As we continue to celebrate the Easter season, the glorious Paschal mystery and when and where all or most of the chocolate Easter Eggs and bunny rabbits have been consumed, the Easter bonnets have been put away until next year's school parades are on the its calendar, I wonder do people really know, embrace what we hold to and are celebrating in our daily lives. Today, the whisper of anguish "I'll never rise again" and hello you don't need and acceptable reason to say this, for your heart knows what it means. It doesn't matter why you feel that way that you "cannot rise again". It is simply a truth and as said your whisper of anguish "I'll never rise again" today makes an explosion of love in Jesus Christ who cries out "You have risen. You have risen in me, and I have risen in your heart!" Jesus has risen from the dead; Jesus has taken on the very thing that our hearts are agonising over. He allowed it to kill him and take him and then he rose above it and came out the other end! Today, each day the choice is ours. Do you want to know the risen life, do you? A suggestion, in the seminary after celebrating the Easter vigil we would hold an additional observance. We would remain in the dark of the remainder of that night and wait for the sun to rise and for the sun's rays to shine through our student common room. We would then stretch out our hands and we would acclaim His Risen Life! We can only do it by the way because we know the depths of the darkness that has brought us to it. Whenever and wherever you are stretch out your hands and say to God "Thank You, I acclaim you, I acclaim your risen life and I believe that I live again!"
