WEEKLY MASS INTENTIONS			Planned Giving The Planned Giving program is an important part of the Parish as it allows us to maintain all aspects of the Church, Presbytery and Parish Centre. In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week. Last week's giving was 82% of target. Thank you!
Sat 02	6.00pm	Mass for the People
Sun 03	8.00am	Holy Souls	PROFESSION OF FAITH I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Peace and Justice in Ukraine  God of peace and justice, who change the hardened heart and break the power of violence, we entrust the people of Ukraine to you. Protect them in this time of peril. Let them know not death but life, not slavery but freedom. You are Father of all. We are brothers and sisters. Give us the strength to live that truth in love, choosing peace not war. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Mary Our Mother, Queen of Peace, Pray for us.

On the Mat

One of my godchildren teaches little children in another country. She has a wide selection of characters and backgrounds in that class of hers. There is one little lad who is a handful. Let's call him "Ross". One day as the children were going about their activities something happened and little Ross erupted. He physically ripped into the group of children around him. They were terrified and they screamed "Blue murder!" My godchild disentangled him from the group and set him on his own, right away from the others. After a little while when he had quietened down, she went over to him and explained very gently that his behaviour was unacceptable. That the other children had a right to be physically safe in their class. He lifted his tear-stained swollen five-year-old face and said to her "But Miss don't I have a right to feel safe too?" She put the pieces together. This little boy lived in constant fear. When his father comes to their house Ross inevitably becomes a human punching bag. Unfortunately, his mother cannot cope on any level at all. And her response to the pain is far from adequate. The school provides Ross with a hot dinner every day because his mother sends him to school with a packet of biscuits and that is all. It broke my godchild's heart to hear him, and I am sure it breaks yours. The rest of the class of course were very unaware of this teacher pupil conversation and when my godchild brought him back to the class and simply said "Ross is very sorry what had happened" she was blown away by the reaction of the class. They automatically moved around and made room for him on the mat and told him to come and sit down with them. Some of them put their arms around him and asked, "Are you alright Ross?" They continued to keep this loving protective eye on Ross. I suspect he feels safe at a school anyway. It makes me wonder how you and I treat the "Rosses" in our own life. I know how God treats them. He moves around and makes room for them and asks them how they are. What a privilege for you and me to join God on the mat with them.
