WEEKLY MASS INTENTIONS			Planned Giving
Sat 19	6.00pm	Holy Souls	The Planned Giving program is an important part of the Parish as it allows us to maintain all aspects of the Church, Presbytery and Parish Centre. In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week. Last week’s target will be posted next week. Thank you!
Sun 20	8.00am	Holy Souls

	5.30pm	Holy Souls
Mon 21	10.30am	Funeral	PROFESSION OF FAITH I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations Jesus you are the Good Shepherd who is always mindful of your Church. Watch over those who are baptised in your name and grant peace and harmony to all families. We ask you to choose from the families of our Parish many priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers who will gladly spend their lives making you known and loved. Amen.
Prayer for Peace and Justice in Ukraine God of peace and justice, who change the hardened heart and break the power of violence, we entrust the people of Ukraine to you. Protect them in this time of peril. Let them know not death but life, not slavery but freedom. You are Father of all. We are brothers and sisters. Give us the strength to live that truth in love, choosing peace not war. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SPECIAL PARISH INFORMATION AND ARCHDIOCESAN EVENT

Love Demands a Response One of the most amazing things about love is that it demands a response. Imagine a young man who runs up to a beautiful young woman, falls on his knees in front of her and presents her with a dozen roses. He does not need to say anything. It is clear by this symbol that he is professing his love for her, unless he starts pointing to the price tag in which case he is trying to sell them to her.

But if we assume for this moment that this is a statement of love the woman is placed in a very awkward position. She must make a response and in fact any movement she makes at this point will be interpreted as being for her response. Sadly, in the case for the love-sick man anything short of a "Yes" will be taken as a rejection. So, the young woman needs to think very carefully about what she says at this moment.

This becomes a decisive moment that cannot be put off for a more convenient time. This is always a case with love. Love always demands a response from us. This is something we need to reflect upon in our relationship with God. We know that the Cross is God's statement of love for us, but do you ever stop and think that perhaps Jesus is looking for you to give him an answer as though he is saying "This is how much I love you, how much I will give for you. Will you love me back?" Will you make a response, or will you leave him hanging?
