SPECIAL PARISH INFORMATION AND ARCHDIOCESAN EVENTS

Permit me to share with you a secret, but for heaven's sake don't tell God I told you. He is a humble God, but he has his pride. See, I think that our God has a broken heart. You and I know how it is when someone you love is away and you don't hear from them and you wish that they would send a word. And day and night you keep waiting but no word comes. But then, finally that long awaited word does come. Finally, yes finally, that long awaited word does come, and it is simply a post card message that says, "Love Fred" Yeah, that is all that was given. Or you think you have a relationship with someone and so you feel free to tell them the things that really matter to you. But after a while you wake up and they are not responding. In turn what happens when you wished you never opened your mouth and also you begin to close. You begin to stop the saying things that are important to you and you begin to doubt your own ability to establish any kind of meaningful relationship. Or you know how it is when you know that someone important to you is not telling you the truth. You just come out and just say to them "Why are you lying to me?" So, you play along with it and you hope that somehow it shall turn out. I think that is what happens for God all the time. I think that sometimes, no, no not sometimes, but all the time that is how he experiences us. That is why he has a broken heart. He tells people all about himself every day and they don't even hear it let alone engaged in conversation with him about it. He longs every day to hear from some of us and he doesn't and when he does it's only a "Love, Fred" message. Like a Christmas card in a "blue moon". So, what can you and I do to soothe the heart of God? Well we could tell him how much he means to us? We can give Him access to our life by telling Him the simplest of things. Tell Him how you feel about the traffic on the freeway. Tell him how you feel about the price of food, tell him about the littlest of things! Anything at all!! Do everything you can to give God the entrance points into your life. What a wonderful thing it would be when our number is up, and we are greeted by the Father. Perhaps we will hear him say as he embraces us "You brought me such comfort. Thank you!"

Thank you to all those involved with the cake stall before Christmas.
We raised $1587.40. Wonderful effort everyone!

Collections Thank you for your continued support of the parish. Due to the continued Covid-19 restrictions all offerings are to be placed in the collection box at the back of the church. Thank you. Note—for clarification box labelled 1st Collection is in support of the Clergy. Box labelled 2nd collection is Parish Planned Giving. Thank you.

The Planned Giving program is an important part of the Parish as it allows us to maintain all aspects of the Church, Presbytery and Parish Centre. In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week. Last week's giving was 85% of the target. Thank you!
