SPECIAL PARISH INFORMATION AND ARCHDIOCESAN EVENTS

"Our God"

Given to a little more time available for spiritual reading because of the constraints of COVID-19 I took up the challenge of reading the Book of Ezekiel, as you would. I read parts that I have not read before or if I have read them, I certainly haven't been aware of what I read now.

I noticed that the recurring line throughout several chapters, was this "And they will know that I am God" God goes off to say "I am going to do this, this and this.... "And they will know that I am God" Finally God is talking to the Israelites and he says, "I am going to do this, this and this.... and they will know that I am their God". That struck me.... "and they will know that I am their God".

I wonder how many times that we take this reality on board?

I passed a dilapidated church building the other day, and the words fit.... "and they will know that I am their God". Sometimes our families are in a disarray.... "and they will know that I am their God.

And our communities beset with sanctions, bad feelings, bad vibes, bad direction and God says, "and they will know that I am their God".

And if He is their God, if He is our God, then beautifully he has taken on all the characteristics. He has taken on all the identity of that group and of that particular family. He is not afraid to stand out in the middle of the street and to say, "Hello" nor point to us and say "I am their God"

Perhaps this week is the week for us to claim him too, as he has already claimed us. What a wonderful thing to wake up tomorrow and say, "Ah, HE IS OUR GOD!"

Planned Giving 2020/2021 Given the Covid-19 directions at this time, our normal procedure of having planned giving cards out on the pews with pens/pencils is not able to go ahead.

Pam will organise the planned giving boxes based on last years information. If you would like to make any changes to your contribution or join the direct debit program, please contact Pam during office hours or send an email so she can make the necessary adjustments. We thank you for your continued support of our Parish.

PREP Classes will recommence shortly. Please keep watch for further details.

Parish Busy Bee A busy bee to "spruce up" the grounds around the church will be held on Saturday 13th June, starting from 8.30am Volunteers are asked to bring their own gardening tools. Please come along to assist and enjoy the company. Thank you!
