Prayer in time of COVID

Almighty and eternal God, our refuge in every danger, to whom we turn in our distress; in faith we pray look with compassion on the afflicted, grant eternal rest to the dead, comfort to mourners, healing to the sick, peace to the dying, strength to healthcare workers, wisdom to our leaders and the courage to reach out to all in love, so that together we may give glory to your holy name.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

God and Love. In July last year a world renowned composer died. His name was Ennio Morricone and at the time of his death he had more than 400 works to his name. During an interview recorded, not long before his death Morricone was asked if he had a favourite from amongst all his compositions. In reply he said, "Asking me if I had a favourite is like asking a parent if she or he had a favourite child." Morricone went onto explain that he did not have a favourite because each and every one was the result of hard work and suffering. We read in the Scriptures that the apostle Peter declared that God does not have favourites. Each and every human being is loved by God. Each and every human being, thanks to the suffering of Jesus Christ has been redeemed. No one is excluded from the favour of God. But this does not mean that we cannot grow in God's favour or that some may become more pleasing to God than others. In the gospel we learn that the Lord sometimes, delighted in the greatness of faith in some and that at times he was saddened by the lack of faith in others. One of the sure ways that we can grow in faith and become ever more pleasing to God is by keeping in mind the extent of God's personal love for each of us. As we hear in the gospels "No greater love is possible than that of the laying down of one's life for another." Well, in Jesus Christ this is what God has done for us and it is this "loving unto death" that we now remember. We also speak of love as though it is always wonderful, yet the reality is that it can often be terrifying. When someone approaches you and bears their soul, speaking of their undying love for you. It demands a response. It is as though love breaks into your life like an intruder demanding that your life changes according to its demands. While we may never consciously think of love in this way there can be a deep fear, that we will lose something of our freedom or autonomy if we allow the love of another to take over our life. This is particularly the case with Christ. We can find it very threatening to acknowledge the madness of God's love shown through his birth in Bethlehem or his death on Calvary. The safest option which is being used throughout the Church history is to wrap the story up in a nice pious or theological coating so that the personal reality of this love never has to impact us. Perhaps it is time to step away from our fear. Allow ourselves to be loved and let the love of Christ set its demands upon our lives.

Prayer of St. Benedict

Gracious and Holy Father, Give us the wisdom to discover You, the intelligence to understand You, the diligence to seek after You, the patience to wait for You, eyes to behold You, a heart to meditate upon You, and a life to proclaim You, through the power of the Spirit of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Thank you A huge thanks to everyone involved with the "Australian Biggest Morning Tea" held on Thursday, $1812.30 was raised. A fantastic effort by everyone involved!

St. Vincent De Paul's WINTER APPEAL Dear Parishioners, the Society requests blankets and clothing, please place in the SVDP bins in the Church grounds (if there is evidence of rain please place in church foyer) non-perishable food items (please place in the box in the Church foyer). Regretfully, Dear Parishioners, due to the Coronavirus, poor and unfortunate families are experiencing a most difficult time; there has been an increase in homelessness due to increases in renting costs, a serious lack of renting accommodation and evictions have occurred. The result is that The Society is faced with serious increases in funding utility bills, rent arrears, assisting in accommodation and medical bills. Consequently, dear Parishioners we sincerely seek your generosity in money donations. You will find Society envelopes in the display rack in the church foyer, please take one. Our poor box is adjacent and also available. Receipts will issued on request. God's blessing be with you and your families.

You can donate online at <https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-wa/winter-appeal-wa> or phone 13 18 12 or post.

The Planned Giving program is an important part of the Parish as it allows us to maintain all aspects of the Church, Presbytery and Parish Centre. In order to keep the Parish viable we must maintain a target of 95% and above each week.
This week's giving was 77% of the target. Thank you!
