Sun 30	8.00am	Mass for the People	PROFESSION OF FAITH I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Where shall I look?

I heard a great story the other day. A disciple approached his master and asked, "Where should I look for enlightenment?". "Here", the master replied. "When will it happen?", he asked; "Well it's happening right now!" the master replied. "Then well why don't I experience it?"; "Hhmm" the master had an answer, "Because you do not look". "What should I look for?"; "Nothing" the master said. "Just look."; "Look for what?" the disciple asked. "Anything your eyes alight upon" came the ready reply. "But must I look in a special way?" "No, just the ordinary way will do". "But don't I always look in the ordinary way?"; "No" the master said. "What do you mean?" the disciple asked. "Well, because to look, you must be here, and you are mostly somewhere else." That struck a chord because in truth is it not mostly true that you and I are somewhere else? How many of us are really rooted in the present reality? We get out of bed in the morning and already we are living in the evening. The day's events are already delivered, judged and packed away before we get anywhere near them. Or we catapult ourselves back to yesterday or several years ago and allow them to sign off, seal and deliver today as well. What would happen if we took each moment as it comes? What would happen if we allowed each event to have its own voice in our lives? What would happen if we lived each moment to the full? If we did, I suspect that no scent of any flower would be unnoticed. I suspect not lilt on any voice would be go unheeded. I suspect we would return to our homes at night with a grateful heart having lived a surprisingly full day and God would smile because we saw what He gave us that day.
